SCHEDULE "B"

To designate the Wycliffe College Buildings at No. 13 Hoskin Avenue of architectural value and of historic interest.

The Wycliffe College Buildings at No. 13 Hoskin Avenue are designated on architectural and historic grounds. The original building of 1891, with additions of 1902 and 1911 are the work of a notable architect, David B. Dick, in a simple and appropriate adaptation of the Romanesque Revival style of the period. Historically the College has been a significant training centre in divinity for the Anglican Church since 1877.
