TOWNSHIP OF RAMSAY

BY-LAW 1747

SCHEDULE "A"

SHORT STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED DESIGNATION

The Gatehouse at the entrance to the Mill of Kintail is worthy of designation due to its historical significance and certain architectural features. Its original owner was John Baird, enterprising pioneer and operator of the original Woodside Mills now the Mill of Kintail. It was later purchased and renovated by Robert Tait McKenzie internationally renowned sculptor, surgeon and physical educator. The building, of coursed rubble sand stone, is a good example of Lanark County stone vernacular.
