NOTICE OF PASSING

TAKE NOTICE The Corporation of Loyalist Township has approved the designation of the property described as being in Loyalist Township (formerly Township of Ernestown) in the County of Lennox and Addington and the Province of Ontario and being composed of Part of Lot 11, Concession 6, which fronts onto Newburgh Road of the said Township, which is known as the Switzerville Cemetery, as per Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, as amended.

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The Switzerville Cemetery, in service from 1825 to 1957, is recommended for designation for historical and cultural reasons. This cemetery represents a community of families brought together through the Methodist denomination. The cemetery occupies a portion of the acre of land, on the west line of Lot 11, Concession 6, purchased from Christopher Switzer in 1825 for the use of a group of Methodists living on the neighbouring farms. The Switzer Chapel was erected on the land in 1826 and in 1892 was replaced by a brick church, itself demolished in 1988. Within the lot, the cemetery with headstones and family monuments is to the south and to the east of the church site. In the cemetery, approximately 95 stones survive. These are grouped by families and represent about 160 deaths, up to 49 of which were children. Family names represent some original Loyalist settler families, some later immigrants to Upper Canada from different origins, and finally generations born in the township.

Notable parts of this cemetery are some finely detailed carved headstones, some dating back as early as the mid-to late-1820's. Several are examples of the skills of township resident carvers named Moore who marked their workplace as MillCreek (1854) and Odessa (1860's). A towering oak tree is a significant presence in the landscape with the rows of stones distributed across the ground.

ANY questions on this matter should be directed to Murray Beckel, Planner, at (613) 352-3361.

APPROVED at the Loyalist Township this 28th day of July 2003.

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The Switzerville Cemetery, in service from 1825 to 1957, is recommended for designation for historical and cultural reasons detailed below. This cemetery represents a community of families brought together through the Methodist denomination. The cemetery occupies a portion of the acre of land, on the west line of Lot 11, Concession 6, purchased from Christopher Switzer in 1825 for the use of a group of Methodists living on the neighbouring farms. The Switzer Chapel was erected on the land in 1826 and in 1892 was replaced by a brick church, itself demolished in 1988. Within the lot, the cemetery with headstones and family monuments is to the south and to the east of the church site. In the cemetery, approximately 95 stones survive. These are grouped by families and represent about 160 deaths, up to 49 of which were children. Family names represent some original Loyalist settler families, some later immigrants to Upper Canada from different origins, and finally generations born in the township.

Notable parts of this cemetery are some finely detailed carved headstones, some dating back as early as the mid-to late-1820's. Several are examples of the skills of township resident carvers named Moore who marked their workplace as MillCreek (1854) and Odessa (1860's). A towering oak tree is a significant presence in the landscape with the rows of stones distributed across the ground.

HISTORICAL AND CULTURAL:

The Methodists had a strong presence in the township, starting with a meeting house near Parrot's Bay by 1792; then moving north to the Fourth line between Odessa and Morven in 1816. The Switzer Chapel provided a place of worship for Methodists in the northwest corner of Ernestown Township and brought local focus. In time, a school was built nearby and, for almost sixty years – from November 1853 through May 1911 – there was a Switzerville post office.

Christopher Switzer, who died in 1828, was a descendant of immigrants from the Palatine who settled for decades in Ireland, where they became attached to Methodist teachings. Families brought that commitment to New York province through a new migration in the 1760's. This was the background for Switzer who acquired his land in the township shortly after 1800.

The finely carved headstone of John Grange carries his story as an immigrant from Ayrshire, Scotland, to Upper Canada in 1795. He died in 1835 at age 75 years. W.R. Moore of Odessa carved the white marble stones for Ora Switzer, wife of D.P. Williams, died 1868; Benjamin Clark, died 1868; and Marshal Williams, died 1868, all names that suggest established township families.

The 1854 headstone of Rebecca, wife of James Fretts, was carved by S. Moore of MillCreek. This stone remains as valuable evidence of local craftsmanship, because it has been re-assembled in recent times. Many of the stones in the Switzerville cemetery have been provided the attention of new bases, re-attachment of broken pieces, and back support, stabilizing important markers of life at an earlier time in the township.

FEATURES NOT TO BE COVERED BY THE DESIGNATION:

Not part of the designation is the site of the church, which is commemorated by the limestone monument with etched granite panels, erected in 1990, that represents both the 1826 Switzer Chapel and the brick church that replaced it in 1892.
