Addendum to By-Law: 4-79

Designated Property: The Public Library,
13 Railway Avenue.

Reasons for Designation:

The Public Library, 13 Railway Avenue, was built after World War 1 with the assistance of the Carnagie Foundation on a site formerly occupied by Stone Stables used in connection with the old Albion Hotel. The Library, complimented by the architecture of the adjacent Fire Hall, create the pleasant courtyard atmosphere of Low's Square. Characterized by a distinctive red brick exterior the building should be noted for the fancy, louvered cupola surmounting roof, and the impressive entrance created by large stone brackets and plaque.
