SCHEDULE "B" TO BY-LAW 87-89
Reasons For Proposed Designation

Merivale United Church
Part of Lot 27, Concession 1, Rideau Front

Merivale United Church is recommended for designation for architectural and historical reasons.

The Merivale United Church is located in what was known as the Merivale Community. The present church replaced an Anglican and Presbyterian log chapel, apparently built in 1842. The present church was built in 1876. The basic form of the church is a simple gable box with an attached entry tower which is topped with a quadruple spire. The building exterior is of a red brick resting on a high squared rubble stone foundation. The gothic window surrounds are highlighted by a lighter coloured brick.

A large cemetery is adjacent to the church which contains many early gravestones of the first settlers in the Merivale Area.

The Merivale United Church played a very active role in the Merivale Community, and with the cemetery, constitutes an important landmark in the area.
