HISTORICAL DESCRIPTION

The building was constructed circa 1850 as a stable for the Rock Springs Brewery Company of Preston. In 1936, it was donated to Scouting by Peter Bernhardt, one of Preston's noted Mayors. From 1936 to 1944 the old stable was converted and additions were made for Scouting purposes. This limestone/rubblestone building has seen many influential people pass through its doors such as Lady Baden Powell, Lord Rowellan as Chief Scout of the British Empire and Commonwealth and General Spry as Chief Scout of Canada. It has acted as a meeting place for many local social events and currently plays an important social role in the lives of the local scouts.
