"SCHEDULE B"

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, R.S.O. 1990, CHAPTER 0.18 AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES AT THE FOLLOWING MUNICIPAL ADDRESS IN THE CITY OF THOROLD, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Thorold intends to designate the former L. G. Lorriman School (now Thorold City Hall), located at 8 Carleton Street South, as a property of historical value or interest under Part IV of The Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990 Chapter 0.18, Section 29.

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED DESIGNATION:

L. G. Lorriman School
8 Carleton Street South
Thorold, Ontario

In February 1914 Wilson and Summers were contracted to construct an eight-room building consisting of 12,500 square feet. The total cost for the building, including furnishings was $39,000. It officially opened as a public school in September, 1914, and was known as Central School; by 1925 the pupil enrolment was 262. A new public school board was inaugurated in January 1949 having two members representing each ward of the town, and in 1957 a Kindergarten was added.

The name of Central School was later changed to L. G. Lorriman School to honour a man who was the principal and an educator for 43 years. For a period of time he supervised both the Lorriman and Prince of Wales Schools.

Thousands of students passed through the doors of L. G. Lorriman/Central School in its 68 years of operation.

Thorold has always been a leader in the field of education, beginning with Dr. Egerton Ryerson who was the Superintendent of Education for Upper Canada; through his efforts the foundations of the present school system were laid with the opening of free schools. It is recorded that the first free school in Canada was opened in Beaverdams - School Section #2.

Due to declining enrolment, the Niagara South Board of Education closed L. G. Lorriman School in the early 1980's, and in 1982 L. G. Lorriman School officially opened as Thorold's City Hall.

The adaptive re-use of this outstanding former school as a City Hall is a major story in the heritage field. This building is a landmark in the City; its colourful and unique background qualifies it for historical designation under the Ontario Heritage Act.

Any person may object to the proposed designation within thirty (30) days after the date of the publication of the Notice of Intention by serving on the Clerk of the Corporation of the City of Thorold a notice of objection setting out the reason for the objection and all relevant facts. The last day for filing objections will be Monday, November 1, 1999. All objections received within the aforementioned time period will be referred to the conservation review Board for a hearing and report.

DATED at the City of Thorold this 2nd day of October, 1999.
