COUNCIL CHAMBER,
Toronto, January 17, 1977.
(L.S.)

SCHEDULE "A"

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Toronto, in the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto, formerly in the County of York and Province of Ontario, being composed of part of lot 74 according to a plan registered in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of Toronto as 45, the said parcel of land being designated as PART 31 on a plan of survey of record in the Land Registry Office (No. 66)—Land Titles Division of Toronto and York—at Toronto as 66R-6S30.

SCHEDULE "B"

To designate The Church of The Holy Trinity at 19 Trinity Square of architectural value and historic interest.

The Church of the Holy Trinity, Trinity Square, designed in 1846 by Henry Bower Lane with additions in 1857 by William Hay, and later interior alterations by Frank Darling is designed on architectural grounds as a fine example of the gothic revival that includes work by three of Toronto's most important architects. The Church is also important in terms of streetscape by reason of its central position in Trinity Square.

The Church of the Holy Trinity is also designated on historic grounds. Founded from an endowment of a wealthy Englishwoman, Mary Lambert Swale, The Church of the Holy Trinity is one of the oldest Anglican Churches in Toronto and was the first whose pews were rent-free.
