SCHEDULE 'A'

ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the City of Toronto, in the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto formerly in the County of York, and Province of Ontario, being composed of lots 59 & 60 on the east side of Bond Street according to a plan registered in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of Toronto as 22-A.

SCHEDULE 'B'

Reasons for the designation of the Property at No. 76 Dundas Street East.

Bond Street Congregational Church, begun c. 1874 by E. J. Lennox, is designated on architectural and historic grounds. It is an important early work of one of Toronto's and Canada's most significant architects. It is also important as the outstanding example in Toronto of a U-shaped auditorium church designed for preaching, one which uses Gothic Revival style elements in an inventive and original manner. The Church is also important for its role in the streetscape and in the skyline of churches that stretches from south of Gould Street to St. James' Cathedral.
