IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, 1974,
1974 S.O. CHAPTER 122

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES
KNOWN MUNICIPALLY AS 273 BLOOR STREET WEST,
IN THE CITY OF TORONTO, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

To: The Governors of The
 University of Toronto,
 Room 232,
 Simcoe Hall,
 University of Toronto,
 Toronto, Ontario.
✓ Ontario Heritage Foundation.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, on the 4th day of February, 1976, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as 273 Bloor Street West, as a property of architectural value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, 1974 S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

McMaster College (now Royal Conservatory of Music). McMaster College, begun in 1880 by Edmund Burke, is recommended for designation as a fine example of the work of a Toronto architect of the first importance. The building is of architectural interest for showing the style transition from the earlier High Victorian Gothic Revival to the Romanesque Revival. It is also important in terms of streetscape both as a local landmark and as a unit of the greener and more open University of Toronto grouping that breaks the densely built-up character of Bloor Street.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 13th of February, 1976. (Reference File 0976).

Dated at Toronto this 13th day of February, 1976.

ROY V. HENDERSON
City Clerk.
