In the matter of The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O. Chapter 122.
And in the matter of the lands and premises known municipally as The Elliott House in the Town of Goderich in the Province of Ontario.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TO: [REDACTED]
51 St. David Street
Goderich, Ontario

Ontario Heritage Foundation

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Goderich, on the 13th day of July 1981, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as The Elliott House as a property of architectural and/or historical significance under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O. Chapter 122.

REASON FOR PROPOSED DESIGNATION

"The Elliott House". The Elliott House has been recommended for architectural and historical reasons. Louis Elliott arrived in Goderich about 1856, building his original house shortly afterward.
Having an academic background, he began teaching. Years later he gave up teaching to become one of the town's foremost blacksmiths.
The House appears to have been built in two sections. The first piece of construction stands as one of the few Neo-Classic buildings in Goderich. Modest in size, but a clearly detailed gabled roof and eave returns, indicate its style. The rare feature of two half-round arch windows stand prominently on the front facade. The second section was built with a picturesque taste, with central gable and gothic hood ornamenting the entrance.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Town Clerk within thirty days of the 15th day of July 1981.

Dated at Goderich, Ontario this 14th day of July 1981.

Signed

TOWN CLERK
