Take notice that Toronto City Council intends to designate the lands and buildings known municipally as 395, 397, 399, 401, 403 and 405 Huron Street under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act.

Reasons for Designation:

The six properties at 395, 397, 399, 401, 403 and 405 Huron Street are worthy of designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for their cultural heritage value, and meet the criteria for municipal designation under the three categories of design or physical value, historical or associative value, and contextual value. Located on the east side of Huron Street, south of Bloor Street West, the properties contain three pairs of semi-detached house form buildings that were completed in 1890, although several remained vacant for a number of years. According to the tax assessment rolls, the houses were originally owned by William White, a builder who occupied #399 and presumably constructed the residences. Campus Co-op purchased #403 Huron Street in 1952. The organization added the remaining houses in the 1960s, apart from #405 Huron, which was acquired in 1990.

Notice of an objection to the proposed designations may be served on the City Clerk, Attention: Frances M. Pritchard, Acting Administrator, Toronto and East York Community Council, Toronto City Hall, 100 Queen Street West, 12th floor, Toronto, ON M5H 2N2, within thirty days of the 17 of January, 2008, which is February 17, 2008. The notice must set out the reason(s) for the objection, and all relevant facts.

Dated at Toronto this 18th day of January, 2008.

Ulli S. Watkiss
City Clerk
