SCHEDULE "A"
TO
BY-LAW NO. 100 -2003

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION
1918 NIGH ROAD

This two-storey Folk Victorian design home was built for Frederick Williams in 1825 and sits on a field stone foundation. The outer thirty-inch thick walls are made from hard field and quarried stone which is now covered with vinyl siding.

The building is "L" shaped and covered with a gable roof. The vertical eight pane sash windows mostly containing the original ripple glass are flanked on the sides by the louvered fixed slat shutters. The gable ends are highlighted with a Quatrefoil Ornamental design in a circular ring. A columned front porch with a wooden rail enclosed a balcony above graces the front entrance.

The three simple stack style chimneys have a row of bricks protruding near the bottom at the roof slope stepping up the sides, forming a flashing course. The plain shaft is broken out near the top in a series of corbelled brick courses to form the cap, the top course brought back to the main stack size.

The kitchen has the original brick fireplace with side irons that were used for cooking and is still in use today. The interior rooms have the original 19th century four flat paneled doors, the upper two panels being elongated.

Special interior features include wainscoting with chair rail around the kitchen, 14 to 24 inch plank pine floors, 12 inch Ovolo style baseboard and Ovolo with Astragal window trim.
