REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

913 Beach Boulevard

Hamilton, Ontario

The large two-storey frame house at 913 Beach Boulevard was built as a summer residence for Francis Edwin Kilvert, noted local lawyer and politician.

Located on the beach strip south of the canal and directly on the lakefront, Kilvert's "summer cottage" bears witness to the time when the Hamilton Beach flourished as a fashionable summer resort area, at its height during the late Victorian and Edwardian eras.

The design is one of Hamilton's best examples of late 19th century resort architecture, essentially Queen Anne in style but entirely shingled over roof and walls in the manner of the east coast Shingle Style. Architectural details type of the Queen Anne style are the ornate, one-storey verandah carried around the side of the house, the half timber work in the gables, and the complete massing of projecting gables and roofs. No. 913 Beach Boulevard represents a style not commonly found in this area today but the Hamilton Beach still retains nearly a number of such houses, some of which are located nearby.

The first owner of the summer house was Francis Edwin Kilvert, a local lawyer who served as an alderman (1873-74), as mayor of Hamilton (1877-78), and a Member of Parliament (1878-1887). The house was sold in 1915 to Walter Connelly, a bank manager, and from 1918-48 the Donald family owned the residence. It has been converted to year-round use.

Included in the designation are the original elements of the west and south facades and the verandah.
