NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TAKE NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Vaughan intends to designate the Archibald McDougald House at the following municipal address as property of architectural and historical value or interest under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1980, Chapter 337:

Archibald McDougald House
12021 Jane Street
Lot 34, Concession 4

SHORT REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The Archibald McDougald House, located at 12021 Jane Street is recommended for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for architectural and historical reasons.

The structure is a 1-1/2 storey stone building believed to have been built before 1861. Although its thirty inch split granite walls are strong, this Georgian style building exudes grace in its architectural simplicity.

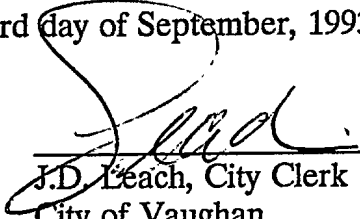

A variety of stones were used in the building's construction reflecting a colour range of white to black and various yellows and reds, placed randomly with little regard to size or colour.

The employment of a limestone soldier course, likely imported from the Kingston area, demonstrates the builder's concern for quality construction.

Archibald McDougald, an early Scottish immigrant to Vaughan, bought Lot 34, Concession 4 from William Crawford for 100 pounds in 1833. The south half of Lot 34 was sold to John McDougald, Archibald's brother, five years later.

ANY PERSON MAY, within thirty days of the 23rd day of September, 1993, being the first publication of this Notice, send by registered mail or deliver to the Clerk of the City of Vaughan notice of his or her objection to the proposed designation with a statement of the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts. If such Notice of Objection is received, the Council of the Corporation of the City of Vaughan shall refer the matter to the Conservation Review Board for a hearing.

DATED at the City of Vaughan this 23rd day of September, 1993.

J.D. Leach, City Clerk
City of Vaughan
2141 Major Mackenzie Drive
Vaughan, Ontario L6A 1T1
