Dear Sir/Madam:

On October 3rd, 1979, I wrote to you and enclosed a copy of the notice of intent by the Aylmer Town Council to designate the Old Town Hall as a Heritage Building. At the same time, the notice was placed in the local newspaper and directions were given for the ad to run for 3 consecutive weeks. Unfortunately, one insertion was omitted by the paper and we were compelled to recommence the advertisement.

This took place on October 17th and a copy of this advertisement is enclosed.

Since objections have been received, the matter will be referred to the Conservation Review Board at the end of the thirty day period, which will conclude on November 16th, 1979.

Yours truly,

Deputy Clerk-Treasurer.
