SCHEDULE "B"REASON FOR DESIGNATIONNORMANDALE POST OFFICE

The Normandale Post Office was built by the Van Norman family and functioned as an important part of their enterprises until 1847. The building was the first post office in Normandale and was operated as a post office and general store until 1875. As an important part of the historic fabric of Normandale and Charlotteville Township. For these reasons this building warrants designation as a property of architectural and historical importance in the Township of Delhi and for protection under The Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1980, Chapter 337.
