SCHEDULE "A"

TO BY-LAW 2007-19

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

The McInnes/Wotten (Maplelodge) 1872 residence located at 22 Lamport Street, Vittoria, being Lot 3, Block 19, Plan 29 B, Geographic Township of Charlotteville, within Norfolk County, is recognized to be of historical significance due to the establishment and flourishing of the McInnes line in Norfolk County and the social history of the house.

The establishment and flourishing of the McInnes line in Norfolk County can be traced back to Sir Walter Scott, without whose patronage, perhaps young Andrew McInnes, Walter's father, would never have made his way to Norfolk County.

The social history of the house is also significant, as Dr. McInnes was a notable and highly-regarded physician in the Vittoria area, as well as a well-known sportsman, who, with his family, played a key role in the evolution of Vittoria and Turkey Point (where he owned the first cottage ever built there).

The residence is categorized as a "mid-Victorian" by virtue of it being built in 1872, in a style more specifically known as the "Picturesque" style, with each façade, or elevation, having a different profile from the others, due to indentations and projections in the floor plan.

Exterior

- north elevation, including brickwork, all windows and casements, wood fascia on brick (but not the aluminum) and eaves brackets
- east elevation, including brickwork, all windows and casements, wood fascia on brick (but not the aluminum) and eaves brackets, casement door, walnut entry door including sidelights, casement and mouldings; but excluding the porch (added in the mid-20th century)
- south elevations, including brickwork, wood fascia on brick (but not the aluminum) and eaves brackets, all casement doors on first floor and all windows and casements on second floor.
- all windows and casements, wood fascia on brick (but not the aluminum) and eaves brackets on the recessed portion of the west elevation, towards the southwest corner of the house. Note that the projecting portion of the west elevation, that is, the part that bears the mud room and kitchen door, is NOT designated
- the roofline and all chimneys

Interior

- all baseboards, mouldings and door surrounds on the entire first floor
- staircase, newel post and banister to second floor, including the scallop design on the outside of the riser/stringer
- all interior doors on first floor, excluding the glass-paned doors separating the front and rear parlours on the north side of the first floor
- the tooled metal valances over the windows in the north-east parlour, originally located in the southerly great room
- the tin ceiling and wainscoting in the kitchen
- all doors on the second floor

For these reasons this building warrants designation as a property of cultural heritage value and interest.
