SCHEDULE "B" TO BY-LAW 40-2009

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE REASON FOR THE DESIGNATION OF 20 ELLEN STREET:

The property at 20 Ellen Street is worthy of designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural heritage value or interest. The property meets the criteria for designation prescribed by the Province of Ontario under the three categories of design or physical value, historical value and contextual value.

The cultural heritage value of 20 Ellen Street is related to its design or physical value as a Vernacular Italianate style home. It is both an excellent and rare example of a 19th Century semi-detached row house that is rare in Brampton since few were built and few survived. The Italianate style was predominant from the 1860s to the 1890s, and became a popular choice for domestic architecture in Ontario during the 1860s. Its popularity was due, in part, to the flexibility it offered as it was easily adaptable to various designs and homes, both grand and ordinary, large and small. Major identifiers do not define the Italianate style nor is it regulated by rigid proportion. Rather, it is known for its design elements the most notable being the highly decorated eave brackets.

The cultural heritage value of 20 Ellen Street is largely due to its architectural significance as it is a very well-designed, large two-storey red brick home. Its architectural characteristics include: ornate side gables and windows details on the upper floors, just under the eaves; decorative millwork at the gable; segmental window openings; well-designed two storey bays; and round headed windows at the top of the bays.

The property reflects the history of Brampton's residential growth. It is also illustrative of the establishment of the Town of Brampton.

The cultural heritage value of the property is also connected to its contextual value as it supports and defines the character of neighbourhood. The property contributes to the character and identity of the locale because it reinforces the late 19th Century residential area on the north side of the block.

DESCRIPTION OF THE HERITAGE ATTRIBUTES OF THE PROPERTY:

Unless otherwise indicated, the reason for designation apply generally to all exterior elevations, facades, foundation, roof and roof trim, all doors, windows, other structural openings and associated trim, all architectural detailing, construction materials of wood, stone, brick, plaster parging, metal and glazing and related building techniques, fencing, all trees, shrubs, hedgerows, other vegetation and the grounds and vistas generally.

To ensure that the cultural heritage value of this property is conserved, certain heritage attributes that contribute to its value have been identified. They include:

- Owned by the Broddy Estate
- George W. Broddy was an auctioneer
- Residence helped to establish the Town of Brampton
- 2 ½ storey red brick home

BL-60-2009

- Very well designed Italianate vernacular home
- Excellent example of a late 19th Century row house
- A twin of 193-195 Main Street North
- Decorative millwork detailing at gables
- Ornate side gables and window details on the upper floors, under the eaves
- Segmental window openings
- Well-designed two storey bays
- Round headed windows at the top of the bays
- Segmental window openings
- Tall, narrow, segmentally arched windows
- Reinforces the late 19th Century residential area on the north side of the block
- 20 Ellen Street has a side entrance and a rear addition
- 20 Ellen has the original wooden window sills

2.0 GENERAL PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

20 Ellen has a frontage of 30 feet and a depth of 115 feet, totalling 3450 square feet.

The plan of the principle structure is rectangular and is on a south to north orientation from front to rear and is on a shallow setback from the Ellen Street.

The principle elevation (main façade) is emphasized by the following elements: 2 ½ storey masonry structure, 2 storey bays, decorative millwork at gables, round headed windows at the top of the bays, and covered front porches.

Landscaping elements include a small-grassed front lawn with a large cedar bush. Mature deciduous trees characterize Ellen Street.

Adjacent property features include: other mid to late 19th Century homes, Main Street North is in close proximity, Central Public School and at the end of Ellen Street is open space.
