SCHEDULE A

108 ROBINSON STREET

Reasons for Designation

An early 1970's advertisement in the St. Marys Argus lists for sale the residence of John Henry Clark, gentleman, with garden and orchard to the north and carriage house and adjoining stable to the west. Clark's built, ca. 1870, has several archaizing features, most notably the large window openings -- almost regency in style -- and unique to the period and the town. Further, the arrangement of rooms and fenestration of the south-half of the house is a mirror image of the north-half. Research has shown that this house of Clark's is a copy of an earlier residence of his located on a farm just west of Rannoch in Blanshard Township. The two-storey carriage house is constructed of rubble limestone; in the early part of this century the Ruthig family manufactured apple cider within. This designation includes both the house and carriage house.

Lots 13 and 14, Block L, Plan 216, being part of Lot 21, Thames Concession, formerly in the Township of Blanshard, now in the Town of St. Marys, County of Perth, as in #237654.
