Schedule 'A' to By-law 2018-152

Being a By-law to designate 78 Bond Street West, Lindsay, City of Kawartha Lakes, as being of cultural heritage value and interest.

Description of Property

The two storey red bricked home is located on the north side of Bond Street, east of Adelaide Street North.

Legal Description:

PLAN 13 PT LOT 4 N OF BOND

PIN: 63224-0066

REASON FOR DESIGNATION

Architectural Design or Physical Value:

Although this two and a half story Italianate influenced home currently occupies a smaller treed lot, the property was once a 10 acre lot. The multi-coloured ornamental brickwork is prominent characteristic of Victorian architecture. The property originally had two upstairs balconies on either side of the sunporch that have been removed but the dwelling still has significant architectural significance.

Historical Significance:

Constructed in 1870 by James Lovell, the home was one of the first to be built in the Bond Street community. James Lovell contributed to the early development of Lindsay as a saddle and harness maker. Given the agricultural roots of the region, his services as a saddle merchant would have been a necessity.

ATTRIBUTES TO BE CONSERVED:

- Segmental windows accented by white brick drip labels
- Decorative and contrasting brick work along soffits and roofline
- Large dormer on roof that was once the original balcony
- Buff brick quoins on the corners of the building
- Dormered roof with two small windows within the gable
- Original four over four windows
- Transom and sidelights around front door
