STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST

Description of Property

The property at 340 Watson Avenue is located on the west side of Watson Avenue, between Macdonald Road and Galt Avenue in the Brantwood neighbourhood. The property contains a 1929 two-and-a-half storey Colonial Revival brick house known as the Slater House.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Design and Physical Value

The subject house has design and physical value as a representative example of a Colonial Revival house. The house was built in 1929 with elements of Colonial Revival design such as: side gabled roof with symmetrical façade; brick in English bond pattern; boxed cornice return with dentil detailing at the roofline and dormer roof line; brick quoins on the corners; central entrance with small stone porch with sidelights and fanlight surrounding wood panelled door; door surround with radiating square brick voussoirs; multipaned windows with brick lintel with keystones and stone sills; wooden shutters; and a bay window on the north elevation.

Historical and Associative Value

The home has cultural heritage value for its direct associations with the theme of development of the local residential area known as 'Brantwood'. The property still retains exterior heritage aspects that have lent to the neighbourhood's character over the last 100 years and its presence contributes to the relatively intact Brantwood neighbourhood. Developed in the early 1900s, this subdivision was designed with large lots and mature trees, and was sold to city dwellers as a secluded, beautiful, and modern neighbourhood in which to construct their own cottage or stately home.

Contextual Value

The subject property has contextual value because it supports and maintains the historical residential character of the Brantwood neighbourhood. The property is physically, functionally, visually, and historically linked to the surrounding residential neighbourhood and places the Brantwood area's origins in a specific timeframe. The house was one of the earliest built on the block and is one of the few heritage buildings on the block as many of the others were built post-1950. This makes its presence even more important for the protection of Brantwood's historic character. The home is a prominent building on the street.
