NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Town of Halton Hills intends to designate the property at 129 Main Street, South under Section 29(1), Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest:

The property at 129 Main Street South has historical and associative value due to its associations with the early settlement and growth of the community of Georgetown in the mid-nineteenth century. Built by cordwainer John Morgan, the property was owned by several local community members who were significant in the community, including local innkeeper Benjamin Thompson, local doctor Dr. Malcolm Ranney, Principal and teacher at Georgetown High School Richard Coutts, and Dominion Seed House Seed Department Manager Robert Reeve. The use of the property has evolved over its 170-year existence from a residential building from the mid-1800s to late 1900s, to commercial use from the 1980s onwards.
