STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House

10729 Victoria Square Blvd

The Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House is recommended for designation under Part IV, Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act as a property of cultural heritage value or interest, as described in the following Statement of Significance.

Description of Property

The Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House is a two-storey, frame dwelling located at the north-east corner of Victoria Square Boulevard and Royal Albert Street, in the historic community of Victoria Square. The house faces west onto Victoria Square Boulevard.

Design and Physical Value

The Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House has design and physical value as a representative example of a dwelling in the late Colonial Revival style. It is an evolved building that began as a one-storey Ontario Regency Cottage c.1860. A general store was added to the front of the dwelling in the early 1880s that was subsequently removed in the early twentieth century. The building was moved back from the street onto a new foundation, and with the addition of a second storey c.1970, assumed a Colonial Revival character. Subsequent additions were made to the rear of the dwelling in the mid-1990s.

Historical and Associative Value

The Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House has historical and associative value as the former residence of William Macey, a mason that first developed village Lot 25, Plan 184, in William Hingston's subdivision of 1856 in Victoria Square, representing the theme of the early development of the hamlet of Victoria Square. The property has additional historical and associative value as representative of the theme of economic development through the development of local businesses and services. The property was the former residence and place of business of John Perkins, general store owner, from 1872 to 1895. Perkins served as post master for Victoria Square from 1884 to 1895, during which time the local post office was located in the store at this location. The property has further historical and associative value as it reflects the theme of prominent early settler families and their continuing contribution to the development of their community due to its long association with the Hagerman family, who operated a general store from this location from 1896 to 1903. The house was owned and occupied by members and descendants of the Hagerman family for over a century.

Contextual Value

The Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House has contextual value as one of a number of nineteenth century buildings that are important in defining, maintaining, and supporting the character and extent of the historic hamlet of Victoria Square. The Macey-Perkins-Hagerman House has stood on this property since c.1860, pre-dating Canadian Confederation. As such, it has long-standing and significant physical, visual and historical linkages to the community of Victoria Square.
