Sections of the original designating by-law referring to 74 King Street East are to be repealed and replaced with a new designating by-law in order to bring the by-law into compliance with current legislation and to better guide the future development of the property.

Reason for Designation

The property at 74 King Street East is worthy of designation under Part IV, Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural heritage value, and meets Ontario Regulation 9/06, the provincial criteria prescribed for municipal designation under the categories of design/physical value, historical/associative value, as well as contextual value within the Township of Cavan Monaghan. The property is a representative example of a 19th century architectural style, has direct association with a notable person that is significant to the community, and is important in supporting the character of the surrounding area.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

The property located at 74 King Street East in Millbrook, Ontario is part of a small collection of Queen Anne Revival style homes in Millbrook. Built circa 1885, the house is known locally as The Smith House. The yellow buff brick home displays a number of features characteristic of the Queen Anne Revival Style. These features include a steep cross gable roof, an asymmetrical front façade, decorative gable bargeboard and shakes, and a wraparound verandah. The house also features a buff brick bay on the front façade with tall, slender windows and wrought iron cresting along the top. The west façade features two balconies on the upper façade with ornate wooden columns and railings.

The front entryway has been modernized but maintains the heritage arrangement with inclusion of a transom and sidelights surrounding the front door.

The lands of 74 King Street East were originally a Crown grant to Thomas Hutchinson in 1824 and the first owners of the house are believed to have been the Smiths, a family of merchants. The property was later sold to Frederick Pendrie, a partner in Fowler and Pendrie's Dry Goods Store located in the iconic Second Empire commercial block in downtown Millbrook.

This property is of historical and architectural significance to the Millbrook community. The house is tied to historically significant figures in Millbrook's economic development throughout the 19th century. It is also one of a small number of well-preserved Queen Anne Revival homes in Millbrook and contributes significantly to the heritage character of King Street.
