SCHEDULE "B" TO BY-LAW 2024-151

STATEMENT OF CULTURAL HERITAGE VALUE OR INTEREST

Description of Property

The property at 506 Lakeshore Road East is located on the south side of Lakeshore Road East between Park Avenue and Howard Avenue in Oakville. The property contains a two-and-half-storey frame house known as the William H. Carson House.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

Design and Physical Value

The William H. Carson House has design and physical value as a representative example of an Arts and Crafts era house with Craftsman, Tudor Revival, and Queen Anne influences. The goal of the residential Arts and Crafts movement was to portray the home as a place of serenity, with a focus on the home as part of the natural environment. The home was built in 1921, with Craftsman characteristics such as: symmetrical massing with front gabled roof and large front porch with hipped roof; horizontal wooden siding; wooden soffit and fascia; wooden details on the front porch; multipaned window fenestration on all four elevations, with wooden trim and remaining storm windows; projecting window on the west elevation; and brick chimneys. Tudor Revival elements include the half-timbering and large wooden brackets along the roof trim. Queen Anne elements include the steeply pitched roof, ornate wood detailing, and multiple sets of narrow windows.

Historical and Associative Value

The William H. Carson House property has cultural heritage value for its direct associations with the theme of the development of the local residential area known as 'Orchard Beach' and then 'Orchard Park', an early 20th century subdivision of Oakville. Its presence contributes to the story of Oakville's early 20th century residential development that was defined by large lots with well-designed homes built by well-to-do families. The property also has historical value for its associations with owner and builder William H. Carson, a local builder and contractor and who ran the Carson Brothers Planing Mill on Trafalgar Road. The Carson family was a notable local family, and William and his brother Charles built many structures around Oakville.

Contextual Value

The William H. Carson House has contextual value because it is physically, functionally, visually, and historically linked to its surroundings. It is a prominent house in the historical Orchard Park (originally Beach) subdivision and continues to function as a residential house. It is visually present along Lakeshore Road East, and it contributes to the understanding of the local community and its early houses along Lakeshore Road East, particularly those houses that were developed as part of the Orchard Beach subdivision. The subdivision was a significant development for Oakville and many buyers of the lots and houses during this time were upper middle-class businesspeople from larger cities, whose presence in turn affected Oakville. The house is one of the earlier structures built as part of the subdivision and its presence contributes to the historical character of the area, including other Arts and Crafts houses from the era.

Description of Heritage Attributes

Key attributes of the property at 506 Lakeshore Road East that exemplify its cultural heritage value as an Ontario Arts and Crafts house built with Craftsman, Tudor and Queen Anne style influences, as they relate to the original two-and-a-half storey house, include:

- The symmetrical and large massing and form of the two-and-a-half storey frame building with steeply gabled roof;
- Wide front porch with low gabled roof, low porch wall and the presence of large square columns;
- Horizontal wooden siding;
- Stucco and half-timbered cladding in the front and rear gables and in the front porch gable;
- Wooden exposed eaves with wooden soffits, wooden fascia, wooden trim and large wooden brackets;
- Projecting front entrance with the presence of a panelled wooden front door;
