✓ Ontario Heritage Foundation.

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, on the 26th and 28th days of September, 1977, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as No.40 Howard Street, as a property of architectural value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, 1974 S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

The Church of St. Simon the Apostle at 40 Howard Street is recommended for designation for architectural reasons. It was built in 1887 to a design by architect W.L. Symons of the firm of Strickland and Symons. At this time allowances were made in the design by the architects for the expansion which followed in 1892. The Parish Hall was added by Architect Eden Smith in 1906. Gothic in character, the brick, stone and woodwork detailing of the exterior and interior are noteworthy. The chancel murals are an important feature. This Church was one of the first built to serve the expanding residential area of Rosedale.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 7th day of October, 1977.
(File 1367).

DATED at Toronto this 7th day of October, 1977.
