THE CORPORATION OF THE TOWN OF ERIN

By-Law # 26 – 07

Being a by-law to designate 202 Main Street under Part IV, section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, as being of cultural heritage value or interest.

Whereas, section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act, 1990 (the "Act") authorizes the council of a municipality to enact by-laws to designate a property to be of cultural heritage value or interest;

And Whereas, the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Erin (the "Council") has consulted with the Town of Erin Heritage Committee, with respect to the designation of the property as being of cultural heritage value or interest;

And Whereas, the Council has caused notice of its intention to designate the property to be given in accordance with subsections 29(3), 29(4) and 29(4.1) of the Act;

And Whereas, the statement of cultural heritage value or interest and description of the heritage attributes in respect of the property are set out in Schedule "A" to this by-law;

Now Therefore, the Council of The Corporation of the Town of Erin hereby enacts as follows:

1. That the property at 202 Main Street (the "Property"), more particularly described in Schedule "B" to this by-law, is designated as being of cultural heritage value or interest for reasons set out in Schedule "A" to this by-law.
2. That a copy of this by-law be registered against the Property described in Schedule "B" to this by-law in the property Land Registry Office.
3. That a copy of this by-law be served upon the owner of the Property and upon the Ontario Heritage Trust, and to cause notice of this by-law to be published in the newspaper having general circulation to The Corporation of the Town of Erin as required by the Ontario Heritage Act, 1990.
4. And that this by-law shall come into force and take effect upon the day of its passing, subject to the applicable provisions of the Ontario Heritage Act, 1990.

Passed in open Council on February 12, 2026.

Mayor, Michael Dehn

Town Clerk, Nina Lecic

Schedule "A" to By-law 26-07

Description

202 Main Street is located within the historic core of the Village of Erin. The property consists of a one-and-a-half storey Gothic Revival building constructed in 1886.

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

202 Main Street is a representative example of the Gothic Revival architectural style. The one-and-a-half storey building follows a L-shaped plan with an asymmetrical but balanced façade, overhanging eaves on the intersecting gable roof, which includes a large front gable and smaller pointed gable peak which are features associated with Gothic Revival architecture. The gable peaks are adorned with ornate bargeboard which are a modern addition but sympathetic to the Gothic Revival style. The dichromatic brickwork, expressed in the red brick construction with buff brick detailing, is displayed on the quoins, decorative diamond shape brickwork in gable peak and window surrounds which are also expressions of Gothic Revival design. The segmentally arched window openings, including the narrow paired windows in the facades gable peak, are framed by brick voussoirs composed of alternating buff and red brick and topped by a row of projecting buff brick header which mimic the appearance of hood moulds. The subject building includes a one-storey bay window on the façade which carries through the dichromatic windows finishes and also includes decorative square section of angled brick design which is representative of Gothic Revival architectural detailing. The one-storey porch, supported by wooden posts, extends along a portion of the façade and over the main entrance which is composed of a single rectangular door with rectangular transom which are also elements of the Gothic Revival style.

202 Main Street is directly associated with the historic Village of Erin. 202 Main Street is located within the historic core of the Village of Erin. The development of the historic core in the 19th and early 20th century played a significant role in the social and economic development of the Village of Erin. The lot lines, layout, and built form of the historic core is consistent with typical 19th century rural communities found throughout Ontario. 202 Main Street was constructed in 1886 and is associated with an important period of development in the historic village of Erin.

202 Main Street is important in supporting and maintaining the late 19th and early 20th century character of the historic Village of Erin. The residential portion of the historic Village of Erin, which extends from the commercial core and into several side streets, was developed at the same time as the commercial core and supports the legibility and character of the overall historic village. Located on or just off Main Street, the historic residential buildings are comprised of predominantly one to two-and-a-half storey residences of primarily brick construction with modest setbacks. 202 Main Street exhibits massing, style and decorative details consistent with the character of the historic Village of Erin.
