SCHEDULE 'B'

Reasons for the designation of the Property at No. 50 St. Joseph Street.

St. Basil's Church at No. 50 St. Joseph Street is designated on architectural and historic grounds. The original Early English Gothic style building was erected, with the first wing of St. Michael's College, in 1856 from a design by the prominent architect, William Hay. There were substantial extensions in 1877, and the steeple was added in 1886 to designs by A.A. Post. The great Angelus bell was installed in 1895 and the vaulted ceiling in 1922. The Church stands on a section of "Clover Hill", the Elmsley family lands. It was donated to the Basilian Order by Captain John Elmsley. The Collegiate Church has been intimately connected with the life and education of many students and families that were its parishioners.
