SCHEDULE "B"

82 WELLINGTON STREET NORTH

On the 21st day of October, 1854, Homer Pratt Brown purchased the property from Edmund Deeds and Henry DeBlaquire (registered 19th April, 1855).

This property has only had four owners since it was constructed.

The Neo-Classical designed house and coach house were built for the family of Jennet (McDonald) and Homer Pratt Brown in 1860. Homer Pratt Brown came to Canada with his parents in 1835. In 1844 Brown became a partner with the "Woodstock Foundry" (515 Dundas Street, where McClellan/Hilts presently is). Brown was a member of the Town Council, Mayor in 1861 and County Treasurer for many years.

After his death in 1908, Dr. and Margaret Sinclair purchased the property. The large front living room was divided into a reception and office for the Doctor. In 1950, Harvey and Edna Naylor purchased the property from the Sinclair Estate. The Naylor's had the rooms returned to one.

ARCHITECTURAL

The sills and supporting lintels were metal and made at Brown's foundry. Since Brown was an active member of the Masonic Lodge there is an emblem of the Eastern Star, as a window, found in the pediment above the front door.

The squared, paired, Doric pillars frame the front porch which shelters a rectangular transom and side lights. The transom and side lights are divided into many rectangular lights. Decorative brackets in pairs repeat and add symmetry to the design.

The design of the transom and side lights are repeated on the inside of a small vestibule.

Each window has a decorative lintel but above the front hall window, a larger stone lintel with an English Rose on each side of acanthus leaves can be found. Small stone brackets of acanthus leaves support the lintel.
