SCHEDULE "B"

BY-LAW NUMBER (1985) - 11920

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

"SUNSET" - 74 PAISLEY STREET

One of the finest large stone houses in Guelph. Front portion skillfully built of local limestone in the mid 1870's. Part of a group of significant stone buildings in its block. Features quality stone-work, arched upper windows and other characteristics of the late Italianate style. The rear portion of the house appears to have been a more modest first phase of construction. Large grounds include a rubble-stone garage (former stable) and many mature trees.

The house was built for Walter H. Cutten, Lawyer. In 1889, it was sold to John Crowe, Foundry Owner, and then became the home of the family of William M. Foster, Dentist, from 1890 to 1922. [REDACTED], Lawyer, then purchased the home and it remains with his daughter [REDACTED] and her husband, [REDACTED], at the time of designation (1985).

83 PAISLEY STREET

One of the finest stone cottages in the City, built in the 1860's for George Hadden, a Wyndham Street merchant. It is an excellent example of the best stone craftsmanship. Attractively sited on its elevated corner. The porch is compatible but is of a later, more ornate design.

Occupied at first by George Hadden, it was rented to Lawyer Walter H. Cutten (1869-1875) and was then sold to Thomas J. Day, Stationer. It stayed in the Day Family from 1877 to 1920, occupied by the family until 1884, then rented or occupied by family members (notably James E. Day, Barrister, 1901-1905). [REDACTED], Registrar, occupied the home from 1920.

SCHEDULE "C"
BY-LAW NUMBER 91985)-11920

ELEMENTS OF PROPERTIES DESIGNATED BY THIS BY-LAW

"SUNSET" - 74 PAISLEY STREET

The designation affects the total grounds, including all stone structures (house, garage, gate posts) and all major trees. The designation takes in the main entrance vestibule built in the 1920's. On the interior, only the excellent ciling medallions and plaster moldings, the seven fireplaces, and the handsome hardwood staircase with its stair-hall are designated. It is intended that any of the designated elements may be restored to an earlier authentic state.

83 PAISLEY STREET

All of the exterior of this house is designted, with the exception of the north-westerly (rear) wall. This includes the two street facades, easterly side walls, form of roof and chimneys. The present verandah is included but it is understood that an authentic porch of an earlier design could be substituted.
