SCHEDULE "B"

Reasons for the designation of the Property at No. 151 Yonge Street.

The property at 151 Yonge Street (Owens and Elmes) is designated on architectural grounds. In 1907, the facade of this building was designed by E.J. Lennox, a prominent architect of the period, for Hobberlin Brothers and Company, Merchant Tailors. The large scale fenestration of the two upper floors is surmounted by a decorative arched pediment rising from paired brackets at each side. Classical detailing is featured throughout the entablature. The store was occupied by the Owens and Elmes Limited shoe store from 1933 until the late 1970's and remains an important part of the architectural image of Yonge Street.
