Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto, on the 16th and 17th days of November, 1992 decided to designate the lands and buildings known as 188 Carlton Street (St. Peter's Anglican Church, Ward 7).

Short Statement of Reasons for the Proposed Designation

The property at 188 Carlton Street is recommended for designation for architectural reasons. St. Peter's Anglican Church is a mission church and was erected in 1865, according to the design of the Toronto architectural firm of Gundry and Langley.

Set into a landscaped garden, St. Peter's Anglican Church features red brick with buff brick detailing, a western entrance porch, a rose window and a bellcote, and displays the variety of form and irregularity of roofline associated with the Picturesque style.

The church contains 19th Century stained glass windows executed by the Toronto firm of Robert McCausland Limited. Contemporary stained glass windows by R. Phillips are featured in the western porch and dormers.

The Toronto Historical Board's Heritage Property Report respecting the property is available for viewing at the City Clerk's Department at City Hall and the offices of the Toronto Historical Board.

Notice of the objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 26th day of January, 1993, setting out the reason for the objection and all relevant facts.

Dated at Toronto this 26th day of January, 1993.
