DESIGNATION - ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT

In the matter of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1980, Chapter 337, and in the matter of the lands and premises at Jordan, in the Town of Lincoln, in the Province of Ontario, known as the Fry House - School House property.

TAKEN NOTICE that the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Lincoln has passed By-law No.88-56, to designate the following property as being of architectural and historical value and interest under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act, Chapter 337, R.S.O. 1980; -

The Fry House - School House property is located to the west of Main Street in Jordan, described as Part 4 of Plan 30R-4745 registered in the Registry Office for the Registry Division of Niagara North.

The lands designated under By-law No. 88-56, contain the Fry House, the School House and the Haines Cemetery. The Fry House was built on Fly Road by Jacob Fry in 1815, and is a fine example of the Pennsylvania style of architecture as it was built in Upper Canada. The structure was relocated to its present site by the community in 1959. Historically, the structure is of interest for the reason that it was the home of Samuel Fry (1812-1881) an early artisan, many of whose works have been preserved. The old School House was built in 1859, and served the needs of the Jordan Community until the mid 1940's. The substantial stone building is now used for the purposes of the Museum Society. The Haines Cemetery is a cemetery assumed by By-law of the Corporation of the Town of Lincoln, pursuant to the requirements of the Cemeteries Act, and contains the remains of early settlers in the Jordan Area.

Dated at the Town of Lincoln this 18th day of May, 1988.
