71 Main Street West (Hamilton City Hall Complex)

City of Hamilton

REASONS FOR DESIGNATION

Cultural Heritage Value

The civic complex located at 71 Main Street West, comprising Hamilton City Hall and surrounding landscaped grounds, possesses cultural heritage value, expressed in historical associations with the development of municipal administration, the 1950s urban renewal movement, evolution of city hall architecture in the City of Hamilton, as well as its association with notable individuals including elected representatives of all levels of municipal, provincial and federal government, visiting dignitaries and celebrities. Hamilton City Hall was built in 1960 by Pigott Construction Co. to a design by Stanley Roscoe, Canada's first municipally-employed architect and was Roscoe's most significant work during his tenure as a city architect. City Hall is one of the few intact examples of modern civic architecture in Canada. The entire civic complex has value as a cultural heritage landscape.

The Reasons for Designation apply to the City Hall complex together with all elevations and the roof of the main administration building including all facades, entranceways and windows, together with construction materials of steel, aluminium, marble, Italian glass tile, wood, building techniques, specific interior features and features of the landscaped grounds as follows:

City Hall
