Bill No. 68
1992

By-law No. L.S.P.-3135-49

A by-law to designate 839 Queens Avenue to be of architectural value.

WHEREAS pursuant to The Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1980, c. 337, the Council of a municipality may by by-law designate a property including buildings and structures thereon to be of historic or architectural value or interest;

AND WHEREAS notice of intention to so designate the property known as 839 Queens Avenue has been duly published and served and no notice of objection to such designation has been received;

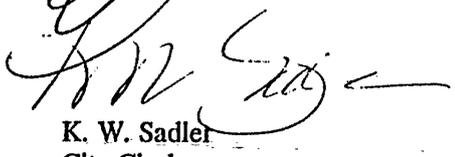

The Municipal Council of The Corporation of the City of London enacts as follows:

1. There is designated as being of architectural value or interest, the real property at 839 Queens Avenue, more particularly described in Schedule "A" hereto, for the reasons set out in Schedule "B" hereto.
2. The City Clerk is authorized to cause a copy of this by-law to be registered upon the title to the property described in Schedule "A" hereto in the proper Land Registry Office.
3. The City Clerk is authorized to cause a copy of this by-law to be served upon the owner of the aforesaid property and upon the Ontario Heritage Foundation and to cause notice of this by-law to be published in the London Free Press, and to enter the description of the aforesaid property, the name and address of its registered owner, and short reasons for its designation in the Register of all properties designated under The Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1980.
4. This by-law comes into force on the day it is passed.

PASSED in Open Council on February 3, 1992.

SCHEDULE "B"

To By-law No. L.S.P.-3135-49

The two storey Queen Anne house at 839 Queens Avenue was built c.1881. It is notable for its elaborate woodwork, particularly the stencil cut semicircular vergeboard fretwork. The double window on the front facade has semicircular arches with an eared window surround. Under the eaves are double brackets attached to a panelled and carved frieze. The front single storey bay window has a truncated hip roof with bracketing, segmental arch and eared surrounds of the windows. The recessed entrance glazed double doors have carved panelling and rounded corners. The entrance porch features decorative friezework and bracketing. The house has a brick foundation. The original exterior material was tongue and groove wood siding.
