Reasons for Designation

925 Dufferin Avenue (south side between Ontario and Quebec Streets)

Historical Reasons

This house has been home to working class residents for a century. Early home owners included John C. Beattie, a car builder; Oliver Does, a traveller with London Tobacco Co. and Norval K. Wanless, an Assistant Storekeeper at the London Insane Asylum.

Architectural Reasons

This one-and-a-half white brick house with side hall plan has a decorative bargeboard and brackets under decorated front end gable. The porch is a later addition.

I/We hereby approve the above Reasons and consent to the Heritage Designation of the subject property.

_____

I/We wish to amend the above Reasons as follows and consent to the Heritage Designation of the subject property.
