DOCTOR HENRY HANSON HOUSEREASONS FOR DESIGNATION

- Built 1860
- Lot 28, south part Concession IV

"Old Doctor Hanson House"

Doctor Henry Hanson, a popular country doctor and teacher had the house built in 1860, living in the basement of the premise for almost thirty years. The main floor had two reception rooms and two bedrooms. On the second floor were the wards made up of four bedrooms where the patients stayed.

Originally called "the Mansion House" this two storey symmetrical yellow brick house has returned eaves, two original chimneys, each with a corbeled cap and a blind gothic window at each end of the attic. The house is of triple brick construction while the basement has an additional layer of brick and stone.

The house has a full verandah running across the front with an impressive flight of steps. All windows are tall and relatively narrow of a four over four design. The central door is surrounded by sidelights and transom. Panels hide french doors on either side.

The Fitzgerald House stands as a graceful reminder of country living.
