Corporation of The Village of Merrickville

Schedule 'B' to By Law 16-77

The George Mirick House Plan 6 Lot 83, Lewis St.

Reasons for designation under The Ontario Heritage Act 1974:

"The George Mirick House, built about 1855-1860, now owned by [REDACTED] is a good example of the stone house architecture found in Merrickville dating from the mid nineteenth century. The front entranceway is of a quality which is usually only found in larger homes. The casement-type windows in the facade are unusual and perhaps copied from the older Aaron Mirick house on St. Lawrence St. It merits designation from the historical standpoint as well as for the quality of its construction and uniqueness of its details."
