SCHEDULE "B"REASON FOR DESIGNATIONVAN NORMAN/GUILER/SMALE RESIDENCE

The Van Norman House is a unique architectural remnant of the mid-19th-century. It occupies a central location in the village of Normandale and together with the general store, the restored post office, the Union Hotel and Wesleyan Methodist Church buildings gives some indication of the size and prosperity of Normandale in the 1840's and 1850's. It also reflects sophistication and elegant taste exhibited by members of the founding village family. Because of the unusually long and dedicated ownership of the house by the Anderson/Guiler family, present day visitors to the village can appreciate this unusual and elegant house much as it was originally built. For these reasons this building warrant designation and protection under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1980.
