ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises, situate, lying and being in the City of Ottawa, in the Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton, in the Province of Ontario and

BEING COMPOSED OF Lots, 64, 65 and 66 on the south side of Sunnyside Avenue as shown on a plan of subdivision, registered in the Land Registry Office for the Registry Division of Ottawa-Carleton Number 4 as Plan 118266;

Previously described in Instrument Numbers 254689, CR157550 and CR155718.

SCHEDULE "B"*STATEMENT OF REASON FOR DESIGNATION

The Ottawa South Community Centre at 260 Sunnyside Avenue is recommended for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for historical and architectural reasons.

The Ottawa South Community Centre was constructed in 1921 to the designs of one of Ottawa's best known architects, W.E. Noffke, and was adapted for use as a community centre by the City of Ottawa in 1977. It is the third oldest structure constructed as a fire station in Ottawa. The building illustrates the evolution of the Fire Department from a small, ill-equipped force to a fully-professional service, as well as developments in fire station technology (e.g. the original provision of accommodation for both horse-drawn and motorized equipment, and a hose drying room in the basement instead of the traditional tower required for hang-drying canvas hoses).

The Ottawa South Community Centre, is a local landmark because of its elaborate Spanish Revival styling which features stone and stucco accents with rough red brick, an asymmetrical front elevation which balances a porch surmounted by a curvilinear gable on one side with traditional truck doors (separated by an elaborate cartouche) on the other, round-headed doorway and window openings. The low-slung appearance of this building relates well to the moderate scale of the residential neighbourhood in which it is located.

The interior of the building is not included in this designation.
