SCHEDULE "B"

STATEMENT OF REASON FOR DESIGNATION

St. Charles School is recommended for designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act on the basis of its architectural and historical significance. The School was constructed in 1910 and served the French Catholic population of New Edinburgh and environs until 1972. St. Charles School is an important physical reminder of the former vitality of the francophone population in this area of the City. In addition, it represents the notorious struggle for the right to teach francophone children in their native language.

St. Charles School is one of the last two school buildings in Ottawa designed by Moses Edey, and Francis Sullivan, two well-known Ottawa architects. Edey designed many Ottawa landmarks including the Daly Building (demolished) and the Aberdeen Pavilion.
