SCHEDULE "A"

MUNN'S PIONEER CEMETERY

The Munn's Pioneer Cemetery located on the southeast corner of Sixth Line and Dundas Street East was established circa 1820 by Daniel Munn and is an important reminder of the Hamlet known as Munn's Corners.

The site is the resting place for many of the area's earliest families which included Munn, Appelbe, Snider, Featherstone, Post, Freeman, Coyne and Bowbeer. It is believed that the first person to have been interred in the cemetery was Daniel Munn in 1822.

Munn's Cemetery contains a number of headstones of limestone or granite composition. Most are in relatively good condition, however, there has been some erosion of the features on the headstones made of limestone.
