SCHEDULE 'A' TO BY-LAW NO. 657-87

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE REASONS FOR THE PROPOSED DESIGNATION

The Chisholm-Gardner-Dunton-Cantata House is recommended for designation for its architectural and historical significance. Architecturally, it is a good example of an Ontario Georgian Survival style house, with its five-bay symmetrical facade, nine-over-six and six-over-six fenestration, stone lintels, and elaborately moulded and glazed doorcase and transom. Historically, it is believed to have been built between 1830 and 1850. It was owned for over forty years by the Joseph Gardner family, a prominent family in the early history of Toronto Township. This house, along with the Britannia United Church, is a landmark on Hurontario Street and is one of the last remaining vestiges of the village of Gardner's Corners, later called Britannia.
