SCHEDULE "B" TO BY-LAW 57-2012

SHORT STATEMENT OF THE REASON FOR THE DESIGNATION OF 249 MAIN STREET NORTH:

The property at 249 Main Street North is worthy of designation under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act for its cultural heritage value. The property meets the criteria for designation prescribed by the Province of Ontario under the three categories of design or physical value, historical value and contextual value.

The cultural heritage value of 249 Main Street North is related to its design or physical value as a good example of a late Victorian dwelling with Italianate influence. The Italianate style was predominant from the 1860s to the 1890s, and became a popular choice for domestic architecture in Ontario during the 1860s. The popularity was due, in part, to the flexibility it offered as it was easily adaptable to various designs and homes. Major identifiers do not define the Italianate style, nor is it regulated by rigid proportion. Rather, it is known for its design elements, the most notable being the highly decorated eave brackets.

The property also has historical or associative value as it can be associated with Brampton's early settlers, specifically Jesse Perry, and the Dale and Brydon families.

Local builder Jesse Perry bought Lot 113, BR-8 in 1878 for $190.00. It would appear that Perry built the present house between 1878 and 1881. Jesse Perry was a well-known builder in Brampton, working in the contracting business for over 30 years. Following his death in 1931, a former apprentice stated "his name will forever be associated with the town of Brampton and Peel County as one of its outstanding and revered pioneers." While that status is lost on the citizens of Brampton today, the architecture remains as a physical reminder of the City's past.

Reverend William McFadden, a Wesleyan Methodist minister in Brampton, bought Lot 113 from Perry for $2700.00 in 1881. Rev. McFadden died circa 1885. Son William H. and Mary Jane McFadden and family lived in the house for many years. Mary Jane McFadden sold the property to Ethel (née Dale) in 1918. After Ethel's death, the property ownership was transferred to her husband, Dr. William Brydon in 1946. The Brydon estate sold the residence in 1964. Might's Directory notes Dr. W. H. Brydon, Dr. W. M. Eagleson, and Dr. H. D. Hall as occupants in 1964.

Dr. Brydon, who graduated from medical school in 1907, operated a general family practice in Brampton for fifty years. Dr. Brydon was appointed Dean of Medicine of the County of Peel in 1957. He married Ethel Dale, daughter of Harry Dale (owner of Dale Estate Ltd.) who was a graduate of Whitby Ladies College and of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. She sat on the Board of Directors of Dale Estate Ltd. in the early 1900s, and was active in her church and the Brampton community. She died in 1943.

The cultural heritage value of the property is also connected to its contextual value as it is a familiar structure on Main Street North. It maintains, supports, and defines the character of the neighbourhood, which is composed of other 19th and 20th century houses. The property maintains the overall form, proportions, and set-back of the buildings that once ran the length of Main Street North.

The property also reflects the early history of Brampton. It is associated with the building boom of 1860 to 1880.

DESCRIPTION OF THE HERITAGE ATTRIBUTES OF THE PROPERTY:

Unless otherwise indicated, the reason for designation apply generally to all exterior elevations, facades, foundation, roof and roof trim, all doors, windows, other structural openings and associated trim, all architectural detailing, construction materials of wood, stone, brick, plaster parging, metal and glazing and related building techniques, fencing, all trees, shrubs, hedgerows, other vegetation and the grounds and vistas generally.

To ensure that the cultural heritage value of this property is conserved, certain heritage attributes that contribute to its value have been identified. They include:

- 2nd storey bay window and protruding sunroom
- Well-defined corner quoins
- Curved cornice brackets
