SCHEDULE "A"

The property known as 15 Dundas Street East, being Part of Lot 20a, Plan 164, City of Trenton, is recognized as being of architectural and historical value for the following reasons:

The building is a simple structure in a local vernacular style constructed of limestone. This early limestone building is the only industrial/commercial (administration) building of its kind in the City. The front facade is constructed of cut "quarry-faced" limestone; the remaining walls are constructed of squared limestone. A shot sawn limestone plinth encircles the building; a sawn limestone string course is located on the front facade above the second floor windows. Shot sawn quoins are located at the corners of the front facade.

The original form of the building is apparent, including two-storey elevation and shed roof. The cornice on the front facade parapet is intact. The building has a five-bay (openings) facade, symmetrical on the second floor. The arches of all openings are composed of limestone voussoirs; cut limestone is used for window sills. Where the openings have been altered or blocked, the arch is still visible in the wall structure.

The window sashes are metal replacements; however, the 18 and 30 pane casement sashes are sympathetic in feeling to the originals.

The building was constructed circa 1852 for the Gilmour and Company administration. The Gilmour Company was a major employer in Trenton during the last half of the nineteenth century. The early lumbering operations of the Gilmour Company influenced the economic growth of Trenton.
