COUNTY OF BRANT PUBLIC NOTICE

The Council of the County of Brant hereby gives notice of the intention to designate the Charles and Margaret O'Neil House, located at 899 Keg Lane, Lot 34, Concession 2, in the former Township of South Dumfries, County of Brant as a Heritage Site under the Ontario Heritage Act.

Background - Reasons for Designation:

Historical:

Born in 1834, Charles O'Neil was the eldest son of Daniel O'Neil and Eleanor Davidson, both of whom emigrated as pioneers from Ireland and married in 1833. Daniel O'Neil was the first president of the Paris Agricultural Society and Charles was the president in 1870 and 1880. Charles married Margaret Urquhart and built this home in 1861. The family was also instrumental in having the Sacred Heart Church constructed in 1857.

Architectural:

The house is one and a half stories with the following features:

- All four walls are cobblestone. This was very costly to build and most cobblestone houses have only 2 or 3 sides cobblestone.
- Regency style with hipped roof, centre door has sidelights and transom,
- Roughly dressed corner quoins and elongated cobblestone header course above the windows.

Anyone wishing to make comments either in support of or in opposition to the proposed designation should submit written comments by fax, e-mail, mail or in person on or before July 30, 2006 to:
