AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES

KNOWN MUNICIPALLY AS

45 Bruton Street

IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF PORT HOPE, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TO: Ontario Heritage Trust
10 Adelaide Street East Suite 302
TORONTO ON M5C 1J3

TAKE NOTICE that the Municipal Council of The Corporation of the Municipality of Port Hope intends to designate the building at the following municipal address as a property of cultural heritage value for architectural and/or historical value or interest, pursuant to the provisions of the Ontario Heritage Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter O.18, Part IV:

45 Bruton Street

Statement of Cultural Heritage Value or Interest

45 Bruton Street, known as the John P. Marshall House, is a one-storey brick hexagonal shaped residential building, constructed by a local mason and plasterer, John P. Marshall. The cultural heritage value can be seen in the polygonal building form, quality of workmanship, design and site arrangement of this rare example of a hexagonal shaped building completed in 1855 which may be the only remaining hexagonal structure in Ontario constructed in the mid-19th century.

Description of Heritage Attributes

Key exterior include a hexagonal shaped building incorporating a medium hipped roof; red brickwork in a stretcher bond pattern detailed with a pilaster at each of the six corners of the building; central chimney with interior double face ; moulded wooden surround and a flat-topped triangular shaped transom on front façade doorway; flat-topped triangular window surrounds with wooden double hung windows with four-over-four sash and projecting plain lugsills and brick work over the window heads includes a flat-top triangular shaped soldier course.

Additional information relating to the full particulars of the reasons for designation are available in the Clerk's Office located in the Town Hall at 56 Queen Street, Port Hope.

NOTICE of Objection to the proposed designation, together with a statement of the reasons for the objection and all relevant facts may be served on the Municipal Clerk before the 2nd day of November 2015.

DATED at the Municipality of Port Hope this 30th day of September, 2015.

Connie Martineff, Deputy Clerk
Municipality of Port Hope
