SCHEDULE "B"

77 Metcalfe Street

This two storey house was built by Benjamin Drake, one of the pioneer settlers of St. Thomas. Colin Munro, an early sheriff of Elgin County, owned the house from 1865 to 1873.

The building is in the neo-classical style, with five bay windows which are shuttered, and a hip roof. The central door has side lights and an elliptical transom. There is a Greek temple porch with elliptical fascia. The eaves on the house are plain. The bricks appear to be handformed and of a similar rose colour to other local brick houses of the same era.
