IN THE MATTER OF THE ONTARIO HERITAGE ACT, 1974
S.O. CHAPTER 122

AND IN THE MATTER OF THE LANDS AND PREMISES KNOWN MUNICIPALLY AS 322 MAIN STREET NORTH, IN THE TOWN OF MARKHAM, IN THE PROVINCE OF ONTARIO.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DESIGNATE

TO: [REDACTED]
322 Main Street North
Markham, Ontario

Ontario Heritage Foundation

Take notice that the Council of the Corporation of the Town of Markham on the 14TH day of JUNE, 1977, decided to designate the lands and buildings, known municipally as 322 Main Street North, Markham, Ontario, as a property of architectural and historical value or interest under The Ontario Heritage Act, 1974, S.O. Chapter 122.

Short Statement of the Reasons for the Proposed Designation:

The buildings and lands, locally known as the United Missionary Manse, at 322 Main Street North, Markham, Ontario, are recommended for designation for architectural reasons as being a fine example of a vernacular building style popular in the area during the middle of the 19th century. This one and a half storey, three bay wide symmetrical Manse has a steeply pitched central gable on the eastern principle facade. It is constructed of timber frame clad in narrow vertical plank and rests on a split fieldstone foundation. The main entrance has a projecting entablature with carved dentils, resting on two square pilasters on either side of the doorway. Inside the pilasters, the door is surrounded by sidelight panels and a semi-elliptical, segmented transom. The bargeboard is fashioned in a tear drop manner along the eaves of the centre gable with an ornate pendant dropping from its apex. To the west facade is attached a small open portico with pillar supports.

The house was originally built in 1875 to house the local minister of the first United Missionary Church in Markham.

Notice of objection to the designation may be served on the Clerk within thirty days of the 10TH day of AUGUST, 1977.

DATED at MARKHAM this 10TH day of AUGUST, 1977.

Diane Smith
Clerk
